

Renessanse (Ziemmermann) 2023

Du er fortsatt i rommet, du glemte igjen ullgenseren din
(You are still in the room, you forgot your wool sweater)
Og en potte med ugress som heter noe kult på latin
(And a pot of weed called something cool in Latin)
Men resten er borte, det var vel bare et spørsmål om tid
(But the rest is gone, I guess it was just a matter of time)
Ja, den ulla her klør litt, den lar seg nok aldri gå inn
(Yes, the wool here is a bit itchy, it will probably never adapt (let itself be worn until it fits))
Men om det bare fantes en sjanse i havet, rom for en slags renessanse
(But if there only was a slight chance (chance in the ocean), room for a kind of renaissance)
Si meg, har du tenkt noe mer på meg?
(Tell me, have you thought anymore about me?)
Jeg går i bane og dreier meg om alt jeg hadde
(I go into orbit and revolve around everything I had)
Resten kan være det samme, for verden ække all verden¹ uten deg, uten deg
(The rest doesn't matter (can be the same), 'cause the world is pointless without you, without you)
Og jeg tvinger meg gjennom en stakkarslig Hollywood-film
(And I force myself to watch a miserable Hollywood movie)
Mens kveldssola lyser opp støvet som svever omkring
(While the evening sun lights up the dust that floats around)
Men jeg har alltid mobilen i periferien av synet
(But I always have my mobile in the periphery of my vision)
Kunne ofra en tå for en gledelig nyhet, så bare ring meg når du hører det her
(Could sacrifice a toe for some happy news, so just call me when you hear this)
For hva i all verden er vitsen for meg
('Cause what on earth is the point for me)
Om det aldri fantes en sjanse i havet, rom for en slags renessanse
(If there was never a slight chance, room for a kind of renaissance)
Si meg, har du tenkt noe mer på meg?
(Tell me, have you thought anymore about me?)
Jeg går i bane og dreier meg om alt jeg hadde
(I go into orbit and revolve around everything I had)
Resten kan være det samme om ikke jeg får dele alt med deg
(The rest doesn't matter if I don't get to share everything with you)
Kan du slå meg til ro, jeg har så mye på hjertet, jeg veit akkurat hva jeg sku' sagt
(Can you calm me down, I have so much on my mind, I know exactly what I should have said)
Om det bare fantes en sjanse i havet og rom for en slags renessanse
(If only there was a slight chance and room for a kind of renaissance)
Si meg, har du tenkt noe mer på meg?
(Tell me, have you thought anymore about me?)
Jeg går i bane og dreier meg om alt jeg hadde
(I go into orbit and revolve around everything I had)
Resten kan være det samme for verden ække all verden uten deg, uten deg, uten deg
(The rest doesn't matter), 'cause the world is pointless without you, without you, without you)

¹ Det er ikke all verden = it's not much / it's not a big deal
